FORMAL ASPECTS

Of writing:

The text must respect the writing, spelling, and grammar requirements of the Spanish and English languages. If the author(s) have limitations in this regard, it is recommended to consult with a person specialized in the subject and style correction, before sending the paper to the review process. The recommended mode for writing is impersonal. In both cases, the third person singular must be used. The plural of modesty should not be used.

Of legality:

Write down, in textual or paraphrased citations, the corresponding authorship, to respect copyright and avoid plagiarism problems. The paper will be rejected if in the review process, plagiarism or self-plagiarism is detected. In addition, it will be rejected if it does not comply with its indicated structure.

The document will be analyzed by the anti-plagiarism system OURIGINAL.
