GUIDELINES FOR THE PRESENTATION OF PAPERS

Dear professors, students and researchers, the Scientific Committee of the 1st INTERUNIVERSITY CONGRESS ON YOUTH, RESEARCH AND EDUCATION 2023, ISBN: 979-8-394-90567-4, appreciates your willingness to participate in the congress, and offers you the general guidelines and a template for the presentation of papers that you can find at the following link:

[<https://www.congresointeruniversitario.com/index-en.html#>]

GENERAL GUIDELINES.

- Language: Spanish and English
- Paper size: Letter format
- Font: Times New Roman
- Font Size: 12 points
- Line spacing: 1.5 points
- Margins: Top and Bottom: 2.5 cm;
Left and Right: 2.5cm
- Citations and references: APA 7th Edition Format (2019)
- Length: 11 to 17 pages
- Avoid using abstracts, theses and internet pages that are not duly certified as references. The Scientific Committee suggests that authors prioritize citations of scientific articles, books and other documents that offer elements that identify authors or editors responsible for the content presented. There must be topicality in the subject matter.

- Presentation of innovative results that show some level of impact on: the theory itself, teaching, or some social process.
- Scientifically substantiated results.
- Writing with clear, coherent language and following a logical sequence.
- Scientifically based information.
- REFERENCES should be used and not BIBLIOGRAPHY, that is, only those documents cited in it should be placed at the end of the paper.
- Pages are numbered in the lower right corner.

The Organizing Committee guarantees the publication of a book of proceedings with ISBN: 979-8-394-90567-4 that will contain the congress papers. For this purpose, it is strongly requested that the information submitted be as close as possible to the template published on the congress website.

Those interested in participating must register in advance on the official website of the congress:

<https://www.congresointeruniversitario.com/#contact>

Subsequently, after choosing the modality of participation, participants must send the papers to the following email address:

eventos@ccgecon.com

Authors may send their questions and concerns to the previous email address or call the following number for inquiries: +593 992118124 (Organizing Committee).
